Here you can dance to the pulse pounding thrill of the merengue, renew in your luxurious accommodations, explore ancient relics of centuries past, delight in delicious Dominican gastronomy or enjoy ecotourism adventures in magnificent national parks, mountain ranges, rivers, and beaches. The Dominican Republic has it all!

Welcome to Altos de Chavón

Altos de Chavón is a place like no other—a replica 16th century Mediterranean village in the heart of the resort property. Meticulously designed by Dominican architect, Jose Antonio Caro, and Italian master designer and cinematographer, Roberto Coppa, every detail of Altos de Chavón was handcrafted by local artisans. The village is a cultural center for working artists from all over the world. Active studios of every medium from pottery to weaving, and more line the cobblestone streets alongside shops and boutiques showcasing their unique creations. The Art Gallery features works from noted Dominican artists, as well as artists from around the world. Other sites include an archaeological museum, offering a glimpse into the fascinating history of the area, the St. Stanislaus Church, 5,000-seat amphitheater, and sweeping views of the Chavón River and the Caribbean Sea.
