Our Company

Fischer Paper Products is a family company with three generations of experience in manufacturing high-quality, food-safe paper products. Since 1972, the Fischer name has stood for exceptional service - delivering flexible, cost-effective solutions and accurate orders to meet the needs of our customers. We take great pride in the many lasting relationships we've built.

Our Markets

Over 90% of our products are made for the foodservice industry. Our primary markets served are:

Foodservice Distributors

Our full line of stock products is available through our distributors.

Chain Restaurants

With delivery and carryout taking the center stage at restaurants, the demand for sustainable single-use packaging is on the rise. Look through Fischer's line for carryout bags, takeout bags and barrier bags.

Convenience Stores

C-stores are increasingly becoming foodservice-focused. Fischer bags are perfect for prepared foods made for grab-n-go.

Food Safety

We are audited annually for food safety in order to comply with GFSI (Global Food Safety Initiative) standards.

Sustainability

We provide our customers with products that help create a more sustainable future for our planet.

- Sourcing materials from certified sustainable paper mills
- Implementing direct recycling practices
- Optimizing our facility and equipment for energy efficiency

Our paper products are biodegradable and recyclable, and some are certified as commercially compostable.

Innovation

We work closely with our customers to develop new products and applications to fit the evolving marketplace.

- New facility with a test kitchen
- New product development team
- 5-stage process for innovation includes customer verification
