THE CELEBRATION

El Día de los Reyes (Three King's Day) is the day when the three kings, or three Magi, of the Bible arrive to worship and bring gifts to the baby Jesus. The tradition starts in the afternoon or evening of January 6th when the family shares a delicious rosca — a type of sweet bread made with orange blossoms, water and butter and decorated with candied fruit. Baked inside is a small doll representing the baby Jesus. Some Latino traditions require the person who finds the doll in their piece of rosca to throw a party on February 2, Candelaria Day, offering tamales and atole to the guests. Contact your local sales rep for more information on our Rosca De Reyes boxes.
